General statement

Shortbytes Marketing Solutions fully respects your right to privacy and will not collect or publish any personal information about you through this website without your clear permission. Any personal information, which you volunteer, will be treated with the highest standards of security and confidentiality, strictly in accordance with the Data Protection Acts, 1988 – 2003.

Collection and use of data

Shortbytes Marketing Solutions collects the following data -personal identification information (name, email address, phone number). This is provided directly to us by you when you register a query online, voluntarily complete a survey, provide feedback to us online or use/view our website via browser's cookies. Any information which you provide in this way is not made available to any third parties and is used by us only in line with the purpose for which you provided it. Data will not be held for longer than is necessary for the purpose(s) for which it was obtained.

Collection and use of technical data

Technical details in connection with visits to this website are logged by our internet service provider for our statistical purposes. No information is collected that could be used by us to personally identify website visitors. We use Google analytics for the purpose of analysing our website traffic. We will make no attempt to identify individual visitors through this or to associate the technical details listed above with any individual. You should note that technical details, which we cannot associate with any identifiable individual, do not constitute "personal data" for the purposes of the Data Protection Acts, 1988 – 2003.

COOKIE POLICY

The website at www.shortbytes.ie uses cookies. These are small text files that are placed on your machine to help the site provide a better user experience. In general, cookies are used to retain user preferences, store information for things like shopping carts, and provide anonymised tracking data to third party applications like Google Analytics. As a rule, cookies will make your browsing experience better. However, you may prefer to disable cookies on this site and on others. The most effective way to do this is to disable cookies in your browser.
